GOOD START AT JUAREZ

RESULTS OF FIRST THREE DAYS OF MEETING FORESHADOW SUCCESSFUL SEASON.

Present Week Will See Meeting Settled Into Its Stride-Track Is Improving and Fields Will Soon Be Larger and Better as a Consequence.

El Paso, Tex., November 30.—Three days of the Juarez meeting have passed into history and there is every indication that the expectations of the management that this will be the most successful meeting in the history of the Jockey Club Juarez will be realized. The meeting has started off far more promisingly than any of its predecessors and will be well settled into its stride during the coming week. Before the end of the week, the late comers who remained in the east for the closing days of the Jamestown Jockey Club's meeting will have arrived and there will then be a cessation of arrivals until after the holidays, when it is expected that there will be auother considerable movement of racing folk this way. The track is still a trifle slower than it ought to be, but is improving and the trainers are now making good progress with their charges, so that it may be expected the fields will materially improve both in strength and quality within the next few days.

It was cloudy and hazy today, but a large crow: I was a cloudy and hazy today, but a large crow: I was in attendance at the Juarez track and enjoyed spirited racing. It was a banner day for long shots, Swede Sam going at the liberal odds of, 30 to 1, while Rio Brazos was quoted at 12 and Bula Welsh at 8. Each was backed by a small cotiere of admirers.

The one mile and a sixteenth race was won by Melton Street an odds on choice. He was ad-

Welsh at 8. Each was backed by a small cotiere of admirers.

The one mile and a sixteenth race was won y Melton Street, an odds-on choice. He was admirably ridden by Loftus, who waited patiently with his mount until the lower turn was reached, then went after Console, which had a lead of fully ix lengths. Melton Street was inclined to loaf in the homestretch, but when Loftus drew his whip he dashed forward like a flash, to win easily.

Swede Sam displayed a high turn of speed and made a rungsay race of it in the third. Brevite, the favorite, met with some mishaps during the running and, when he recovered, he made up ground camely, but it was too late.

Shooting Spray went to the front at the start of the firth and was challenged in the stretch by Zool. In the hard drive that followed, jockey Forsythe outrode Loftus in the last sixteenth.

There will be no racing at the Juarez track on Monday. A big crowd is expected to see tomorrow's card decided.

The stakes of the Jockey Club Juarez yet to come, which closed on November 7, filled better than ever before. For instance, in the El Paso Stakes, one mile, there is a total of seventy-two entries, and for the Rio Grande Stakes, six furlongs, sixty-nine boyses have been named. In the Chihuahua Stakes, six furlongs, stay-nine entries; the Chapultepec Handicap, seven furlongs, forty-nine entries; the Chapultepec Handicap, six furlongs, forty-five entries; the Chapultepec Handicap, forth, fort

P. D. Weir has six promising yearlings at the Juarez track, one being a gelding and the others filles. They are:

Bay filly, by The Commoner—Niaxia.
Bay filly, by Ogden—Masquerade.
Chestmut filly, by Uncle—Dicker.
Bay gelding, by Uncle—Hazing.
Bay gelding, by Uncle—Livory Belle.
The youngsters in this collection by Uncle are the first of the get of this son of Star Shoot, and were raised at Hamburg Place by J. E. Madden, who has always regarded Uncle as among the best racers of recent years. It was the fate of this great horse to stack up as a kindergarten performer against the sensational Colin. As far as Mr. Weir has gone with these yearlings, they give every promise of ultimately racing well. Aside from the yearlings, Mr. Weir has here the older horses Any Port, Sister Forence, Crossover, Sprightly Miss and King Stalwart. This is Mr. Weir's first visit to the Juarez track and he is much impressed with the great plant and the fine climate here. He says that he expects to spend every winter hereafter at the Mexican course.

R. F. Carman has some great two-year-old prospects among the nine yearlings he has quartered at the Juarez track. A full list of them follows: Chestnut filly, by Waterbose-Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—One Moment, Bay colt, by Woolsthorpe—One Moment, Bay colt, by Ultimus—Dancing Water. Bay filly by Waterboy—Duchess of Towers, Chestnut filly, by Alvestot—Daruma, Bay colt, by Marta Santa—Strathlou. Brown colt, by Disguise—Ophirdale. Chestnut colt, by Voter—Adeibert Belle.

Mr. Carman has named none of his youngsters

Chestnut colt, by Voter—Adelbert Belle.

Mr. Carman has named none of his youngsters yet, but is thinking of bestowing Mexican names upon them, as he figures in this way to avoid duplicates when he sends the list to the Jockey Club for registration. This New Yorker is delighted with Juarez and says he never saw a finer whitering place for horses. The one filly he lost here was a member of his stable that had been more or less alling for over a year and a half and as he was rarely able to get her to the post he does not figure her death to be much of a loss. The older cracks of his stable, including Meridian, Starbottle, Semprolus, Compton, Beunie Kelso, Cohort, Campion and The Turk, could

AMERICA'S MOST SUCCESSFUL PRESENT - DAY SIRE

Star Shoot, Himself a High - Class Race Horse and a Son of the Great Isinglass, Making a Splendid Record in the Stud in This Country

As the leading thoroughbred sire of the United States for the two successive years of 1911-12. Star Shoot has gained an eminence well deserved and earned through the speed and endurance of his progeny in lacing. Star Shoot was a brilliant two-year-old in England and not far from length to best of his year, if indeed he was not quite such. This was in 1900 and he was then the property of the well-known turfman, Capitain Eustace Loder, who four years later owned and raced the ever-famous mare, Pretty Polly. Star Shoot did not train well as a three-year-old and was sold at that age for export to this country, a fortunate circumstance indeed for American breeding interests. Messrs. Clay & Woodford made a business ten-strike as breeders when they secured him to take the place of Billet as premier sire at Runnymede.

As a two-year-old Star Shoot made his debut in racing in the Summer Breeders' Foal Plate at Mancaester, June 6, 1900, and ran second to the fast filly, Princess Melton, which that year won eight races out of nine starts and in the other ran second to Volodyovski, Derky winner of the next year. His second train discaper, Friar's Wask, Energetic, St. Macior which he finished third to Bay Melton and Orchid, with the understood that in these races, as in all others in which he lee ook that and Ursula unplaced. July 21, at Sandown Park, he started in England's most valuable stake race for two-year-olds, the National Breeders' Produce Stakes, of two-net value of $25,810 that

EASTERN RACING CLOSES

JAMESTOWN JOCKEY CLUB'S MOST SUCCESS-FUL MEETING COMES TO AN END.

George W. Langdon Wins Final Stake with the Two-Year-Old, His Majesty-Lahore's Rider Futilly Makes Claim of Foul.

Norfolk, Va., November 30.—The 1912 season of racing in the east came to a close with the running of the seven-race program provided by the Jamestown Jockey Club here this afternoon. The races were witnessed by the largest crowd of the meeting, well-balanced fields went to the post for a majority of the races and the sport was keen. The finishes in two of the races were exceedingly close, these being the second and sixth, won by Western Belle and Servicence.

The Exchange Handicap, a dash of one mile and a sixteenth for all ages, was the feature race, and it furnished G. W. Langdon an opportunity for showing just how good a colt he had in His Majesty. The latter, with C. Turner in the saddle, made practically all of the pace and beat the favorite, Lahore, by four lengths. Lahore was ridden by Ambrose today and was evidently well meant, as there was plenty of support for him despite his poor showing in a preceding effort. He ran well up with the pacemaker from the start and moved up with a rush on the inside in rounding the far turn. When he got to His Majesty, Ambrose was unable to get through and repeatedly struck at Turner with his whip. He was in rather close quarters and Labore suddenly dropped back. After the race Ambrose claimed that he had been interfered with by the winner. The stewards evidently were of the opinion that there was no interference, as the placing was allowed to stand just as the horses finished. In this they were indorsed by a majority of those who watched the race closely. At all events, His Majesty was undoubtedly best, for he won in littie more than a canter. Since passing into Mr. Langdon's hands, this colt has improved wonderfully and it looks as if he may develop into a real high class three-year-old. This was the second stake that the Langdon stable won here. Briar Path having beaten an all-aged band in the Merchants' Selling Stakes at six furlongs last week.

E. D. Schlupp, the German buyer who came here from Lexington to secure some thoroughbreds for shipment abroad, secured a b

McDonald had closed a deal for the cott before the race with Mr. Holland's agent.

W. F. Cisco bid Yorkville up $400 over his entered price of $800 and secured him. He afterwards sold the colt to Charles Richings.

W. V. Conran has donated the stallion St. Damius to the Canadian Breeding Bureau and the horse will be shipped to Toronto in William Walker's car on Monday.

Frank Taylor boosted Servicence after he won the sixth race and secured him on his bid of $500. This was an advance of $200 over his entered price.

A big party left here tonight for Juarez. Among them were Claude Kyle, Frank Kaverne, George Marks, F. J. Kittleman, Florenz Israel, J. E. Harrison, C. Meek, C. Harris, H. Lowry, F. J. Kraft, E. L. Jones, C. Norris, J. W. Reynolds, J. J. Johnston, James Casey, T. J. Power, M. J. McGrath, E. L. Stone, William Beverley, Henry Graffin, and jockeys Buxton, Kirschbaum, Carter and Frach.

The following went to New Orleans: T. J. Shaw, Harry Shaw, Colonel James, and Bruno Mitchell.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. Masterson is making jockey Small's engagements at Juarez.

F. J. Grefer has bestowed the name Art Rick on his yearling colt by Leonatus—Flying Gold Dust. Recent arrivals at Juarez include A. P. Yeoman, from Denver, with Goldfinn, Little Jake and Robert: J. McEnery. with Russella, and J. H. Adams with Marsand and Stoneman.

"I am getting well and certainly shall take my seat in Congress," said Timothy D. Sullivan to a friend who visited him a day or two ago at the Westchester County Sanitarium, where he is recuperating from a prolonged illness.

American owners continue their successes on the French turf. At St. Ouen, Friday, they scored in three of the six races, Mr. Fischoff, with Lokhartia, won a selling race at even money. Frank Jay Gould, with a rank outsider, Conti LaBelle, 24 to 1, took the principal event in the hurdles, a race for $2.000. Charles Kohler captured an $800 handicap with Novelty at even money.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., November 30.—Phil T. Chinn has made all arrangements to leave here next Wednesday for France with the seven mares he bought from James R. Keene for W. K. Vanderbilt. They will go aboard the Minnewaska at New York next Saturday.

W. G. Hogg. of Spencer, Wyoming, bought this week from Dillard Hill the thoroughbreds Cloyne. Zwingll, Walter B., and the yearling filly by Mazagan—Gold Mint. They were shipped to Wyoming along with The Swan and Mag Thorpe, which Mr. Hogg had in training here and six that he bought out of the recent sale.

James P. Ross has sold Dorble to D. R. Stewart of Edmonton, Alberta, G. D. Wilson has purchased the yearling sister to Stalwart Lad from Mrs. Lizzie W. Pinkerton.

HAS RUN NEARLY TWO HUNDRED RACES.

Golconda is a busy selling plater that is still able to win races. In six seasons on the track, Golconda has started in 197 races and has twenty-three firsts and $10.783 to show for his efforts. He is a borse that has raced in various interests and he is now the property of Davis & Karst, who have been campaigning him on the minor tracks of late. His racing record is as follows:

YEARLINGS IN THE MACKENZIE STRING.

El Paso, Tex.. November 30.—R. J. Mackenzie, the Canadian millionaire for whom Jack Adkins is training successfully, has a promising lot of yearlings in training at Juarez for the two-year-old races to be run in 1913. Several of them recently arrived from California, where they were bred, and the list is made up as follows:

Brown colf. by Contestor—Lacasta.
Chestnut filly, by The Commoner—Ice Water.
Brown filly, by Joe Carey—Saindora.
Brown colf. by Joe Carey—Prudential Girl.
Bay filly, by Joe Carey—Glenco Mald.
Bay colf, by Joe Carey—Sister Modred.

mot possibly look better and unless all signs fail mr. Carman will have a most prosperous season here.

Mose Goldblatt has a promising yearling colt in his stable by Stalwart. This youngster before leaving Latonia worked a quarter in :23% and in that trial outran an older horse that worked with him. He shipped well and acts in his work more like a two-year-old that has been racing than a yearling which has never faced the barrier. He will be nominated for all the two-year-old events soon to be announced by Secretary Ed Jasper.

George Miller, who is here in charge of the Burbank stable horses, including Lehigh, Gasket, Dynamo and Wheeler, was once one of the most famous riders in America. He rode in most of his noted races the great Tammanny and the famous Morello was another sensational horse he often rode. He was on the latter when that son of Eolus won the famous Wheeler Handicap, Washington Park, Chicago, and made a track record of 2:05 for a mile and a quarter. When Miller quit riding he drifted to California and has since been a trainer of horses. Neil Enright, until recently connected with the racing stable of W. O. Joplin, is here for the winter. While he has no stable in charge at present he has a backer who is likely to buy any good horse which turns up for sale. The only horse he had left in Kentucky was Forehead and that one he fired and turned out until next spring. Mr. Enright seems to think that T. Koerner may decide not to attempt for ride again. Koerner is at his home in Louisville, but has never thoroughly recovered from the effects of his fall from Effendi at Douglas Park last September. His physician says he will soon be entirely well, but as he has gained in weight he has about decided to quit the saudle. His brother, C. Koerner, also once a Jockey, is now a prosperous business man in Louisville and it is likely that Joplin's famous rider will join his brother in a business venture. Koerner has sufficient capital to bis wealth.

George Mayberry, who is engaged now in the training of F. J. G ture. Koerner has sufficient capital to live in luxury without adding another dollar to his wealth.

George Mayberry, who is engaged now in the training of F. J. Grefer's stable since Harry Herdel and Mr. Grefer parted company, was once employed in Sam Hildreth's stable as foreman. It was on Mayberry's advice that Mr. Grefer decided not to race his two good fillies Floral Park and Trojan Belie this winter, and for fear that he would be temped to train them too early next spring and run them a time or two at Juarez, he has then quartered in El Paso where they can exercise in a lot during the daytime. Both showed a bit of bad disposition on the track in late races and by keeping them away from where they would come in contact with other horses, Mayberry thinks he can bring them back to be as good track actors as there are in training. Both Mayberry and Grefer think Floral Park will win the Kentucky Oaks next spring.

Rudolfo, which won the Latonia Cup for Capt. H. Emmons, was not sold to C. F. Buschemeyer, the owner of Hawthorn, as was reported in some circles. It is understood that Mr. Buschemeyer offered $4.000 for the colt but Captain Emmons declined the tender and priced the colt at $5.000, but gained Mr. Buschemeyer's consent to let W. S. Trevey take Rudolfo to Louisville and winter him there with Hawthorn and the other horses he has in charge, He will also let Mr. Trevey train the Latonia Cup winner next season and especially point him for the four-mile Endurance Stakes at Churchill Downs next fall. Captain Emmons expects to pick up a horse or two in Virginia to race at Juarez this winter, but even if he fails to secure any, he will come here after the holidays.

John Lowe, trainer of the horses of J. Schreiber, Dr. Ramon Macias and C. W. Clark, has returned from a wedding trip to California, having taken unto himself a wife at the close of the Latonia meeting. Trainer Lowe has in his stable General Marchmont, Maizie Girl, Jim Basey, Florence Roberts. Francine, El Palomar, The Clader, Sigurd, Magda B., Don

APPROACHING THE $50,000 MARK.

A horse that may yet work his way into that exclusive class composed of winners of $50,000 and over is J. H. Mead's Chapultepec. the seven-year-old son of Gerolstein and Graclosity. This fast horse won the Ilon's share of the $40,237 that now stands to his credit as a two-year-old and a three-year-old, when conditions were more favorable for making a good showing in money won than in succeeding years. But for an erratic disposition that he developed in the early part of his racing career. Chapultepec doubtless would have had an even greater sum to his credit than he has. It is stated that in the last two or three seasons Chapultepec has quieted down considerably and that he is by no means the had actor at the post that he once was. In his younger days Chapultepec was wont to give the starter and his assistants no end of trouble in affecting a start and it was a tiresome task to line him up at the barrier. During 1911 and 1912 Chapultepec won more money than during the previous two years and it is to be hoped that he may be able during the coming year to win the $3,763 necessary to enrole him in the $50,000sclass.

Chapultepec raced as a two-year-old in the colors of Fred Burlew. He ran second to Firestone in the first part of the Double Event and scored his first victory in the Spring Stakes at Coney Island, July 4, the celebrated King James running third. Then he ran second to Stamina in the second half of the Double Event, again beating King James. A victory in the Repting Stakes at Brighton Beach followed. Then he ran second to the incomparable Colin in the Brighton Junior Stakes and in the Futurity Stakes at Coney Island later in the season he finished third to Colin and Bar None. After a series of unplaced efforts he scored in an allowance race at New Oreans on the occasion of his final start as a two-year-old.

As a three-year-old he won his initial start in the New Year's Handicap at New Orleans. His next start was in the Merchants' Handicap at New to Colin and Bar None. After a series of unplaced efforts he scored in an allowance race at New Orleans on the occasion of his final start as a two-vear-old.

As a three-year-old he won his initial start in the New Year's Handicap at New Orleans. His next start was in the Merchants' Handicap, also at New Orleans, and in which he scored another easy victory. Then he beat the speedy Jack Atkin telengths in the King Cotton Stakes. By this time the New Orleans racegoers began to regard him as, invincible and he ruled an odds-on choice for the Crescent City Derby, only to meet defeat by Meelick, which great three-year-old S. C. Hildreth had shipped from California to fill his Derby engagements at New Orleans after he had taken the three-year-old bonors in the Golden State. Angelus, with which he was coupled in the betting as the Burlew & O'Nellientry, beat Chapultepec in the City Park Derby, which followed shortly and in which Meelick ran third. That ended Chapultepec's racing at New Orleans.

He next appears as a contestant in the Carter Handicap at Aqueduct, in which he ran third to Jack Atkin and Red River. Then he was returned winner of the Sterling Stakes, at the same track. After running unplaced in the Excelsior Handicap and the Withers Stakes, he won the Carlton Stakes at Gravesend and ran third to Fair Play and King James in the Brooklyn Derby. Then an unplaced start in the Tidal Stakes, won by Colin, marked his final appearance in the colors of Burlew & O'Nelli, who shortly afterwards sold their horses and went to France. When he next raced it was at Santa Annia Park in southern California late in the year. He carried the colors of Harry L. Shaw, from whom his present owner, J. H. Mead, acquired him. Chapultepec, as a young horse, possessed dazzling speed, some of which he still retains. His racing has for the most part been confined to sprinting, on December 28, 1908, as a three-year-old, he reduced the American record for six furlongs to 1:11, which performance has since been conduced but not surpassed.
